Sonny's Sayings

Throughout this issue, you will see pictures from the good experiences our church has had traveling this summer. Summer is generally a great time for rejuvenation. Those who have traveled to Homestead have returned with an experience of sharing the Good News to kids in a poverty-stricken neighborhood. Their experience of bringing the gospel was met by children who taught them about happiness and acceptance even in the midst of poverty.

The youth have returned from Passport Mission Camp, and they have also come back from mission projects that they participated in. Each day, they woke up and went to work on a local mission project in Danville, Virginia, and then each night they enjoyed worship together with people from other churches who were also a part of the camp.

Also, the children have returned from PASSPORTkids. They were able to enjoy time playing games, learning about missions in the country of Bali, and gathering for worship with children from other churches.

Summer is often thought of as a lull in our church, but it does not have to be that way. It can be a time of rejuvenation as well. We can't all go to camp or on a mission trip, but we can take the time to take stock of our faith, and find a place to serve in some way. These moments of renewal are important, and give us the boost that we all need in our lives. So for the rest of the summer, I hope that you will take the time to be re-energized! Blessings, Sonny

The Church of Encouragement!

Let's be known as the church who not only champions the downtrodden, but as a fellowship of believers who encourage and show love! Often the person who appears least loveable needs love the most... Will you accept the challenge to find someone who might truly benefit from a kind word and do something kind, generous, or unexpectedly thoughtful for them?

Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. -Colossians 3:14

Central's Servants: BARBARA FRASE

Dual Passions

by Joan Singley Schrysen

"I LOVE cooking Wednesday night dinners. I REALLY do."

Barbara Frase's voice radiates enthusiasm. Always willing to help, Barbara and family became involved in the dinners when she learned of Central's dinner dilemma. Once Piccadilly closed their doors and stopped providing meals, the church, as a stopgap, ordered pizzas and other easy meals. When Barbara heard about this, she knew she could help.

Since January, 2015 Barbara has prepared the tasty mid-week dinners for Central, first with her husband Fritz, a professional cook, and now with one of her three brothers. Her greatest pleasure comes from people telling her how good the food is. Barbara sends this message to our readers: "I would like to see more people come on Wednesday nights. They don't have to come every week. I would like at least one week to reach 100 people."

Barbara also has LOVED youth from the time her two now-grown daughters were young and involved in many activities. Recently she accompanied the youth to Passport Camp in Virginia. A highlight was the mission activity during which the youth helped at the Boys' and Girls' Club. "It was so overwhelming to see how those kids were starving for love. It was just so awesome to see how our youth divided themselves (among the children). They just all gave their love to everybody."

Barbara grew up in a Southern Baptist Church. The daughter of a 31-year Navy man and sister of a 20-year Navy man, she has traveled all over the United States and Europe. She has a history of feeding people. Following some tornadoes, she fed people out of the back of their car. Several years ago she and Fritz opened "Fritz's Barbecue" in Edgewater. This week she is presiding over the desserts at a huge youth rally in the Ocean Center. Although her time and energy are divided among numerous responsibilities, Central is doubly blessed by Barbara's dual passions – cooking for Wednesday dinners and encouraging our youth.
